Liturgy and Formation and Theology

Prayer and the Liturgy

March 1st, 2021 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Instructor: The Ven. Dr. Jay Koyle

Liturgy Teaching Us To Pray: Abiding as the Story We Tell

As we sharpen our focus on the shape and nature of liturgical prayer, we will study the rhythm of the Prayer Offices, and how these form and inform the life that prays without ceasing.

Cost $25.00 (bursaries available)

Pastoral Care Series

Pastoral Care in Times of Crisis

March 6th, 2021 10:00 a.m. to 12:30p.m.

Instructor: Dr. Margi Hollingshead

Crisis is an integral part of life, yet one that often leaves the pastoral caregiver feeling baffled, helpless, or anxious. Based on pastoral care educator Howard Stone's classic, Crisis Counseling, this seminar will explore the dynamics of crisis with an eye to offering pastoral care that is both timely and effective in de-escalating the situation. Particular attention will be given to suicide intervention in the second half of the seminar.

Although this session is framed in the context of pastoral care, it will be of benefit to anyone interested in this issue.

There is no cost for this seminar.

Liturgy and Formation and Theology

Renewal

March 15th 2021 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Instructor: The Ven Dr. Jay Koyle

Fostering Liturgical Renewal: The Dance of Tradition and Innovation March 15th

Christian worship can remain within the trajectory of Christian tradition and still respond to the realities of current "Western" cultural contexts. We will identify any characteristics of vital worship not already named in our time together. Then students will be introduced to effective strategies for fostering and reflecting upon liturgical renewal in a congregation while successfully navigating resistance and obstacles to change, an approach to worship renewal that understands "being traditional" and "being innovative" as related and necessary facets of a simultaneous and ongoing process.

Cost $25.00 (bursaries available)
